Phone: 415-981-3939, 1-888-CPR-4880 (California only)
Email: pests@igc.org
Website: www.igc.org/cpr

CPR is a coalition of more than 157 public health, consumer, environmental, sustainable agriculture, labor, farmworker, and public interest organizations. CPR's goals are to eliminate use of the most hazardous pesticides in California; reduce overall use; support sustainable alternatives in all settings; and promote and protect the public's right to know. CPR staff provide information on pesticides, pesticide use in California, and resources to help individuals work to eliminate pesticide use.

California Public Interest Research Group (CALPIRG)

3486 Mission Street
San Francisco, CA 94110
Phone: 415-206-9338
Email: calpirg@pirg.org
Website: www.pirg.org/calpirg

CALPIRG has been at the forefront of the toxics movement for more than 20 years. The PIRG staff of attorneys, scientists, policy analysts, researchers, and organizers have been instrumental in promoting the public's right to know about toxic chemicals and pressing government and industry to prevent and clean up toxic pollution.

Pesticide Action Network North America (PANNA)

49 Powell Street, Suite 500
San Francisco, CA 94102
Phone: 415-981-1771
Email: panna@panna.org
Website: www.panna.org

PANNA works globally, nationally, and locally on pesticides, health, and agriculture, and advancing non-toxic pest management alternatives. PANNA uses its comprehensive web-available pesticide data base (www.pesticideinfo.org) and extensive library of resources to assist pesticide reform activists, farmworkers, and others with information and networking.

Pesticide Watch Education Fund (PWEF)

3486 Mission Street
San Francisco, CA 94110
Phone: 415-206-9185
Email: info@pesticidewatch.org
Website: www.pesticidewatch.org

PWEF assists individuals and community groups working to reduce pesticide use and promote safer methods of pest management in their communities. The organization provides educational materials; skills training; strategy consultation; referrals to doctors, lawyers, and other technical experts; and networking opportunities with other groups working on similar issues.
